THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

The residence of George H. Taggard, No. 1713 Fifteenth street, was entered by burglars by means of a basement window, during the absence of the family, and a revolver, some toy necklaces, and some cartridges, of a total value of $12, were stolen.

The quality of the gas furnished by the Georgetown Gas company is much complained of in that section. In some cases, where more than one jet is lighted, it is difficult to depend on the gas, and many families have to depend on the oil lamps at all times.

The main auditorium of the Garfield Memorial Christian church will be lighted by a magnificent prismatic reflector of 100 lights, the contract for which has already been awarded. Several large polished gold and crystal chandeliers for the lecture room of the church have also been ordered.

Glenmore Moten, colored, will be tried today in the police court for breaking into the unoccupied house, No. 1238 Fourteenth street northwest, belonging to the Metropolitan bank, on the eleventh instant, and stealing a quantity of lead pipe, gas fixtures, and other material from it, which was subsequently recovered.

Within the next few days the cut granite copings for the bridge over the Baltimore and Potomac tracks on Sixth street, near Maine avenue, will arrive and be placed in position, when the bridge will be ready for the iron trusses. In anticipation of its early completion the roadways from both sides of the park are now being carried up to the height of the bridge.

Sergeant Curran, of the signal corps, yesterday arrested a white man named Robert Johnson for desertion. Johnson was locked up at the fifth precinct station. He enlisted at the recruiting office in this city last week and was clothed in uniform. He left the office shortly after and proceeded to get drunk, in which condition he remained until yesterday. During his spree he had sold his nice, new soldier clothes and was wearing an old and scant second hand suit.

The Hindoo Brahmin, Mozomdar, secretary of the Brahmo Samaj, the progressive religious society of India, will speak at All Souls' church this evening at 8 o'clock. The public are invited. Admission free and no collection. Mr. Mozomdar is a master of English, a most eloquent speaker, and in Boston was accorded a special reception at the Freedom by Revs. Phillips Brooks, Edward Everett Hale, and other leading citizens, and delighted all with his eloquence. All who hear him will enjoy his instructive and interesting account of religion in India.

The patented appliance, whereby one can open or close outside shutters without raising the window, which Mr. Nottley Anderson has for sale at his carpenter shop, corner of Fourteenth and G streets northwest, should be put on every shutter of every house in the district.—Adv.

HONORS TO LORD COLERIDGE.

How the Great English Jurist will be Entertained in this City.

The committee appointed by the Bar association of the district to arrange for the suitable entertainment of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, and consisting of Messrs. Samuel Shillaberger, R. T. Merrick, W. A. Maury, J. G. Payne, J. H. Ashton, James Lowndes, and A. P. Morse, have perfected arrangements, which will have the hearty co-operation of the attorney general, the chief justice, and associate justices of the supreme court, and those cabinet members at present in this city.

Upon his arrival on the 4:47 train this afternoon, Lord Coleridge will be received by the committee and Attorney General Brewster, and escorted to Wormley's hotel, where he will be the guest of the bar association until next Monday, the day set for his departure. A reception will be given this evening in honor of the distinguished guest by Secretary of State Frelighuysen, to which the members of the cabinet, the justices of the supreme court, the heads of foreign legations, the judges of the court of claims, the judges of the supreme court of the district, and the committee of the bar association have been invited. No ladies will be present. Tomorrow the attorney general will accompany Lord Coleridge to the supreme court chamber, the white house, and the several executive departments. In the evening a private dinner will be given in Lord Coleridge's honor by Chief Justice Waite. On Saturday the members of the Bar association will accompany him on an excursion to Mount Vernon, in which a large number of distinguished guests will participate. Other hospitalities of a more private character will be tendered him during the remaining hours of his stay in this city.

Police Court Notes.

William Berlew was fined $10 for stealing a coat, in default of which he was sent down for thirty days.

John Adler, John Ray, and Peter Brown were fined $5 each for profanity at the race track.

Edward and Samuel Montague, two colored men, who, it was stated, had represented themselves to be agents of the garbage contractor and entitled to fees, were ordered to give bonds or go to the workhouse for ninety days as a vagrant.

Hamilton Wilson was charged with fast driving, but the judge decided he was not going fast enough to violate the law, and dismissed the case.

Messrs. Jacobs Bros., 1229 Pennsylvania avenue, make extraordinary announcement. The exhibit in their windows is the largest stock of rare and fine diamonds ever seen in this city. Rector Smoot, and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.
